Are You Ready to Make a Difference?

Attend one of the upcoming information sessions at the Murphy Institute!

- Explore your passion for social justice through our innovative degree and credit-bearing certificate programs;
- Meet with faculty and admissions counselors;
- Learn about our commitment to our students;
- Start the path to advancing professionally and personally in a supportive environment.

All sessions are held at the Murphy Institute for Worker Education
25 W. 43rd Street, New York, NY, 10036
6:00pm-8:00pm

RSVP for upcoming information sessions -- information@sps.cuny.edu

UPCOMING INFORMATION SESSIONS—WINTER/Spring 2017
January 24
February 23
March 8
March 21
April 12
April 24
May 10
It is never too early to get a jump start on the admissions application. When you are ready to apply, please click here to start your application today!

The degree and certificate programs in Labor Studies will strengthen your ability to advocate for equity and social justice in your communities and workplaces. You will develop critical thinking, analytical and leadership skills, while learning about labor law, organizing, collective bargaining, labor relations and strategic research.

For more information on the application process, please contact:
Rob Callaghan
212-857-1968
rob.callaghan@cuny.edu

For more information on the MA in Labor Studies, please contact:
Laurie Kellogg
212-642-2055 or 718-440-1550
laurie.kellogg@cuny.edu

Our Urban Studies program will allow you to gain a greater understanding of the political, economic, social, and cultural factors that contribute to the uniqueness of cities, like New York City. Through an interdisciplinary approach using both theory and research, you will explore how policy development and governance processes affect diverse, working-class communities across the City.

For more information on the application process, please contact:
Cherise "Cher" Mullings
212-642-2059
cherise.mullings@cuny.edu

Look out for upcoming information session dates this fall!

To find out the latest news and information check out our blog, sign-up for updates, "like" us on Facebook and follow us on Twitter.